

Northwest Indiana Transportation Center (NWITC)

The mission of the Northwest Indiana Transportation Center is to conduct research, serve as a technical resource to assist in regional economic development, and offer educational programs in transportation related areas and technologies. The Transportation Center will provide a multidisciplinary approach to assisting government agencies and the private sector in dealing with the complexities of efficient and secure transportation, distribution and logistics (TDL) systems and their relationship to economic development and policy issues.

For additional information, please contact:

Don Gray

Director, NWITC

Department of ECE

Purdue University Calumet, 2200 169th Street, Hammond, IN 46323

219-989-2472, gray@calumet.purdue.edu